Thanks for being available for the 9 am briefing tomorrow. I will plan to offer you some time to directly respond to the options/recommendation during our discussions with Sarah. She may also have some questions on the financial aspects of the paper.

Douglas

Hi Douglas – I realized I responded to this through Tiffany, but not to you directly. The recommended options looks good.

Thanks,

Hi Ben/Valois: I have updated this options paper with more current information and included a recommendation for Sarah’s (or possible Darcy’s) decision.

I would like to set up a briefing for Sarah soon and would appreciate your review and any comments this week. Once I hear back from you, I will include this document in the meeting invite and ask Lucita if she prefers to join us.

Tiffany: we would be happy to include you on the invite to our briefing as well.

Thanks!
